

IN THE CLAIMS

1. (original) Process for the preparation of coated finely divided inorganic solids, characterised in that the surface of finely divided inorganic solids particles is coated with at least to different organic additives, at least one additive comprising a wetting agent, dispersing agent or deflocculating agent and the proportion of additives being not more than 15 wt.% of the coated solids.

2-17 (canceled)